Lily finds a map

Lily kept a tiny notebook of things that felt too big.

One morning a map fell out: 'For when you are stuck.'

She packed a snack, a crayon, and her quiet dragon, Ember.

The noisy forest

The forest tried to show her every path at once.

Ember sat down. 'Pick one tree. Then the next.'

Lily chose the tree with the gold leaf. Just one.

They did not finish the whole map.

They finished the next step. That was the adventure.

Lily drew a gold dot in her notebook. One was enough.
