Lily Meets Sparky

Lily found a dragon in the garden, no bigger than a teapot, warming the strawberries with polite little flames.

"I'm Sparky," said the dragon. "I am practicing being gentle." Lily practiced too.

The Lost Kite

A red kite was stuck in the tallest oak. Sparky flew in small circles so he would not scorch the leaves. Lily cheered like a whole parade.

When the kite came down, they shared apple slices on the back step and named the clouds.

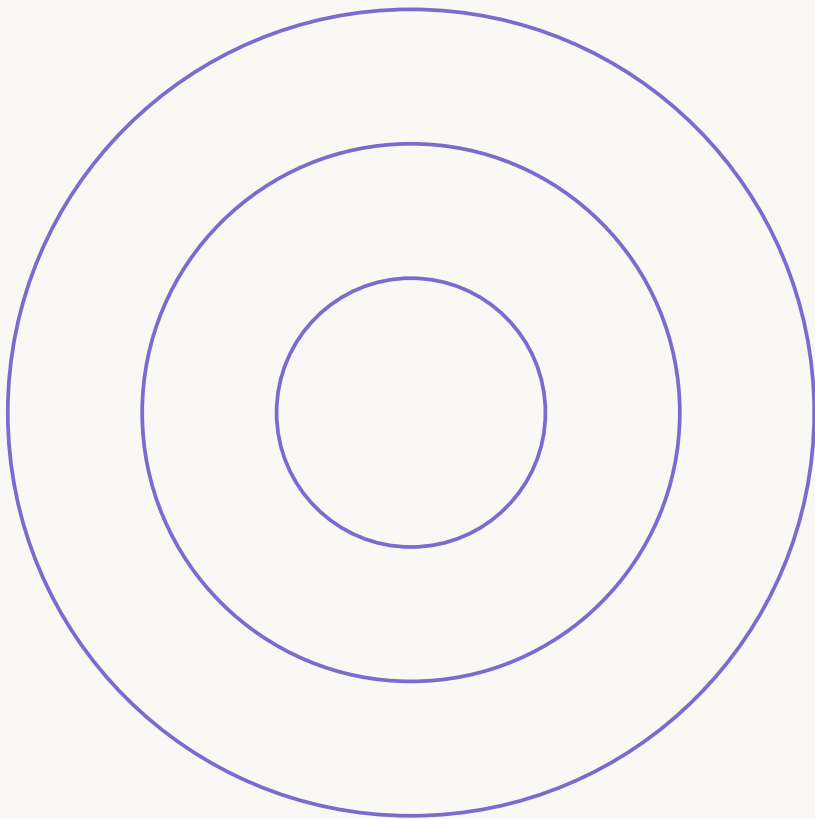

A Promise

Sparky promised not to toast the mail. Lily promised to leave a saucer of water by the tomatoes.

Some friends are loud. Some friends are warm. The very best friends are both, in turns.
